

Cells Choice Board Assignment 1

BOARD GAME <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Design a board game in which the players will travel through a plant or animal cell travelling from organelle to organelle.• Have tasks for the players to complete either on the board or as questions.• Include game pieces, rules for the game, any other needed materials.	CHILDREN'S SHOW <ul style="list-style-type: none">• You have been hired by an educational network to produce a video series about cells.• The first episode is going to be about either a plant or an animal cell and our daily lives.• Your episode should include information about the cell, its organelles and how it works within our daily lives.	CELL MUSEUM TOUR <ul style="list-style-type: none">• You are the head of the Cell Museum.• Put together a tour guide map and pamphlet for your cell museum.• Make sure you include a title of your museum, pictures, prices, hours of operation, numbered descriptions of exhibits, a map of the museum, and a description for each exhibit
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Checklist for Cells Choice Board

Board Game

- All organelles included _____/18 pts
- Rules, game pieces, and questions appropriate for age _____/18 pts
- Board game and questions are creative _____/12 pts

Children's Show

- Video is creative _____/12 pts
- Video includes all organelles _____/18 pts
- Video explains how cells and organelles work in our daily lives _____/18 pts

Cell Museum Tour

- Tour includes all organelles _____/12 pts
- Descriptions are accurate and creative _____/18 pts
- Pamphlet includes prices, pictures, hours of operation _____/18 pts

I chose to complete

for Assignment 1 of my Cells Choice Board.